Burdick Strengthens Forces Of The Overall Brigade In Richmond Tuxedo Fracas

Oyez! Oyez! Be it known that Al Burdick, Fifth Street Mogul, was joined with President "Dick" Johnson, leader of the Overall Brigade, in a self-sacrificing effort to prove that the members of the Richmond Merchants Association are cooperating and are not competing.

The move is a great sacrifice on Burdick's part. He is the owner of a handsome Tuxedo which he displayed to ogle eyes at the Rotary club's ladies night. The ladies made him the cynosure of attention during the evening.

"It is nothing," Burdick is reputed to have said while he wiped his eyes, which were bright with suppressed emotion. "Anything for the Cause."

Al Furrer reports that he has been subjected to a prolonged "razzing." The reason for it all lies in the fact that the tickets for the Get Together in Hotel Carquinez, April 18, are of a handsome, but lurid yellow.

"They are made from the most expensive material," Furrer observed. "Why should I be un-journalistic in a cause for which I have sacrificed—yes, given my all. As chairman of the dance I have lost precious hours of sleep. What a responsibility!"

Harry Albert and A. J. Abraham, proprietors of the Fashion, are making stealthy plans for an encroachment on both Tuxedo and Overall lines of defense. Ladies will wear a combination of Tuxedo and denim, and thus keep out of hostile entanglements. Both Albert and Abraham stand ready to aid any of the fairer sex desiring an ensemble that is unique and at the same time chic.

"It's all right," Ben Malik declared yesterday. "I was listed last in the roll call of merchants but my record stands for itself." And after this graceful speech Malik retired with complete aplomb. No banana skin spoiled the effect.

W. T. HELMS IS MADE PREXY OF ROTARY CLUB

Walter T. Helms was nominated to the presidency of the Richmond Rotary club at a luncheon meeting of the club yesterday, which was in charge of past presidents of the club. Dr. Clark L. Abbot acted as chairman.

A convincing address on the topic, "Ideals of Better Business," was given by Henry Johnston, and he was warmly applauded for the way he presented vital facts and figures of the new era in business methods.

Harry Albert introduced Clark Bargar and A. Michaels of Alberts, Inc., in an original dialogue illustrating the right and wrong methods of greeting and conversing with customers. Two baritone solos were sung by Lud Johnson, one of them a musical setting of "Let Me Live in a House by the Side of the Road."

At a short business meeting preceding the program officers were nominated, 12 members being placed on the nomination list for directors.

RICHMOND NAT WILL BE OPEN AFTER APRIL 1

The Richmond municipal natatorium will be ready for use immediately after the first of April, City Engineer E. A. Hoffman stated yesterday. Most of the work of repair has been completed, and the tank is awaiting its final coat of paint. This will probably be applied next Monday.

The walks about the natatorium have still to be painted, but this will occupy little time. A tremendous amount of work has been necessary to free the bathhouse of the rust which made severe inroads during the past season. The new metal paint which is being applied is said to preclude any possibility of rust.

PARR LEASE IS VALIDATED BY EASLEY BILL

Easley Bill Passes Senate
And Is Up For Signature
Of Governor

The lease of Richmond municipal docks and waterfront holdings to the Parr Terminal company is validated with the passage in the Senate of Assembly Bill No. 421, introduced by Assemblyman Robert Easley of Contra Costa county. The bill is now before Governor Young for signature.

The question had been raised as to the right of the city of Richmond to lease lands acquired from the state under the Owen's act. Under the new bill any discussion is precluded. The Parr lease and any possible court action on the lease is thus settled.

The Senate adopted the bill introduced by Senator Sharkey of Martinez, following its passage in the assembly a few days ago.

El Cerritan Is Off For Weepah

James F. Fitzgibbons of Santa Clara avenue, El Cerrito, has answered to the lure of the wide open spaces where horses are mules, women are not-present, and gold is sometimes found. Fitzgibbons has a "hunch" that a new strike is awaiting his arrival in Weepah. Other members of the family expect to join him in a few days. Fitzgibbons has been employed by the Pullman company for several years.

Thar's No Gold In Them Hills For Little Ray

With a pack upon his back and a suitcase in his hand, Ray Duhem, 11, 3521 Gollado street, Oakland, set his eyes upon the broad and gold flecked horizon of Weepah, and started for the promised land. He arrived in Richmond, Officer S. W. Ligon, of the Richmond police force, found the lad at Twenty-third street and Clifton avenue, last night, with a most indefinite notion of his location.

He poured out a story that portrayed a burning ambition to locate a claim in the desert wilds where men are men and "boys grow up fast."

But he offered no objection when local authorities, summoned his mother, and he started back to school and (it is hoped) mild parental discipline.

MRS. GROVER IS SUMMONED TO LAST REST

Death came to Mrs. Sarah Ann Grover in the home of her eldest daughter, Mrs. Albert E. Chandler, 2619 Benvenue avenue, Berkeley, Friday morning at 7 o'clock.

She was the wife of the late Stephen F. Grover, pioneer lumberman of California, and identified with large lumbering interests in Santa Cruz from 1862 to 1899.

100 FOREIGN DEAD ESTIMATE OF CASUALTIES IN MASSACRE

Foreign Evacuation of Shanghai Reported in Dispatch

(By Universal Service)
SHANGHAI, March 25.—The first two shipments of refugees from Nanking will arrive at Shanghai today (Saturday), according to a message from Consul General Gauss tonight.

Many of them are said to be destitute and will require assistance.

Reports from Hankow and elsewhere in the Yangtze valley are that rapid evacuation of Shanghai is taking place, Gauss added.

LONDON, March 25.—Twenty Americans are still missing at Nanking, according to a dispatch to the Daily Telegraph tonight from Shanghai. All other Americans are accounted for, the report states.

By WILLIAM F. FLYTHE
(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, March 25.—Supreme efforts were being made tonight to bring Americans who may have survived the Nanking massacre, about 155 in number, out to safety under the protection of the guns of Yankee warships.

They were still besieged in Nanking. There has been no communication with them, nor is it known how many are alive. Rear Admiral H. H. Hough, commanding the naval forces there, reported.

He indicated, however, that he had assurances that they would be able to reach the waterfront and be taken aboard ship. There is "a fair possibility" of this, he reported.

But the horror of the 48 hours through which they passed, hours of rape, murder, brutal torture and death, it was feared, will be duplicated at Hankow, Chinkiang, Swatow, Amoy and Foochow.

The entire southern half of China, which is under the control of the Cantonese, particularly the Yangtze valley, is now aflame with anti-foreign fanaticism. Admiral Williams, commander in chief of the American forces, reported by radio to the navy department.

Almost at every point, except at Shanghai, the Cantonese troops, numbering millions, are beyond the control of their officers and are burning and looting the property of foreigners and murdering as they go.

Bush Destroyers

To every accessible danger point American destroyers were being rushed, stripped for action and prepared to bombard the places if necessary. All hope of the Cantonese war lords affording protection has been abandoned.

President Coolidge and his cabinet were deeply concerned with the horror of the situation as they read dispatches from Admiral Williams, or Rear Admiral H. H. Hough, of the Yangtze patrol, today.

One in particular, from Admiral Hough told of American women being stripped of their clothing and subjected to maltreatment and brutality by the Cantonese hordes in Nanking.

Orders were immediately dispatched to Admiral Williams and to Admiral Hough not to hesitate to go into action everywhere American lives are in danger.

Admiral Hough's last dispatch, telling of the attack on American women, filed at 6:05 p. m. Chinese time, or at 5:05 this morning here, said:

Brutal Treatment
"At Nanking so far as is known all American missions and homes have been looted. The following American property is known to have been looted: (Continued on Page 5).

THAT BRITISH CRUISER

A great many of our alleged liberal statesmen have been pained by the action of Great Britain in sending a warship into Nicaraguan waters and have expressed wonderment that such a thing would be done.

Well, if these gentlemen are looking for a reason they ought to be able to find one close home. Ever since the United States intervened to protect American lives and property in the Central American republic; many of these liberal statesmen have been criticizing the United States government, have declared that our policy is ruthless and imperialistic, that the revolutionists ought to have free hand, that there is no danger to foreign property, that the marines must be recalled and that even if there is danger, Americans have no business being there and our government ought not protect them and their investments, which, so the so-called liberals declare, are probably illegitimate anyhow.

Now if the British government thinks this is the sentiment of any considerable class of our citizens then it would have abundant excuse to send a cruiser of its own into Central American waters. Great Britain has always followed the laudable custom of looking after its citizens whenever they are in danger, and if its officials believed there was any doubt as to whether the American government's policy would stand, because of lack of support at home, they would naturally want to be in position to look after their own nationals.

Fortunately the American policy will not be changed and it is not likely that British marines will have any excuse for landing in Nicaragua. Uncle Sam is abundantly able to look after his citizens there. In fact, the British, by serving notices that British interests must be protected have strengthened the position of the American government and put the soft pedal on its critics.

Grover Cleveland's favorite chair has been found at Rochester and we are old fashioned enough to believe that it would take a pretty good sized modern statesman to be able to fill it.

If we ever collect enough money to be able to go to Bermuda for a vacation it will be just our luck to get there at the height of the onion season.

New York police raided a burlesque show the other night. It was alleged that some of the feminine costumes displayed on the stage were almost scant enough for street wear.

Men Who Made the World

THE DEATH OF CONRAD CREATED TREMENDOUS EXCITEMENT THROUGHOUT THE CAMP OF CRUSADERS. A STORY WAS SPREAD THAT RICHARD HAD HIRED TWO MEN TO KILL CONRAD. RICHARD AND HIS FRIENDS DENIED THIS INDIGNANTLY, CLAIMING THAT THE CHIEF OF THE HASSASSINS, WHO LONG HAD A QUARREL WITH CONRAD, HAD ORDERED CONRAD'S DEATH. THE FRENCH TROOPS REBELLED AND ATTEMPTED TO SEIZE TYRE. OPEN WAR WAS DECLARED AND A DIVIDED ARMY SEEMED INEVITABLE. IN THIS CRISIS, A NEPHEW OF RICHARD'S, COUNT HENRY, WAS PUT IN COMMAND OF TYRE AND RESTORED ORDER. THEN HE PROPOSED TO ISABELLA, WHO HAD MARRIED CONRAD, THAT HE BECAME KING OF JERUSALEM IN HER NAME. THE FRENCH, WHO HAD SUPPORTED CONRAD, WERE GREATLY EXASPERATED, BUT WERE HELPLESS, FOR THEY HAD ALWAYS MAINTAINED THAT ISABELLA WAS THE TRUE SOVEREIGN, AND THEREFORE, NOW THAT CONRAD WAS DEAD AND ISABELLA MARRIED TO HENRY, THEY COULD NOT DENY THE NEW HUSBAND HIS RIGHT TO SUCCEED THE OLD ONE. FINALLY RESENTMENT SUBSIDED.

SECOND 'PET BANDIT' SENT TO PRISON

MARTINEZ, March 25.—Manuel De Costa of the "petting party" bandits was sentenced to San Quentin by Superior Judge H. V. Alvarado, following his plea of guilty to two more counts of robbery. He had already been convicted by a jury last week of first degree robbery for the holdup of Melvin Sjoberg, Oakland, on the San Pablo dam road. De Costa's sentences were made to run concurrently.

De Costa is the second member of the bandit gang to be sentenced. Manuel Duarte, 25, who shot and killed Frank Malley, another member of the petting bandits, was taken to prison early this week to serve sentences for murder and robbery.

Official List Of Refugees Is Given Out

WASHINGTON, March 25.—The official list of American refugees from Nanking who arrived safely at Shanghai as reported by Consul General Gauss, was announced by the state department today as follows:

Dietert and four children, Mrs. C. Trimmer and infant, Mrs. R. H. Porter and two children, Dr. and Mrs. L. S. Huizenga and three children, Mrs. W. P. Wills and two children, Mrs. F. C. Jordan and three children.

Gauss reported the following refugees had arrived previously from Nanking at Shanghai:

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Spaulding also arrived safely from Tochoy, Gauss reported. He described the general situation at Shanghai as "tense."

Gauss reported that the general labor unions have ordered the return to work of all strikers except "armed pickets." The municipal council has ordered all persons to remain indoors under penalty of arrest from 10 p. m. until 4 a. m.

(By Universal Service)

"Oh, We'll Just Forget It," She Said Coily

(By Universal Service)

LOS ANGELES, March 25.—An invitation to an "old clothes" party, admittedly written by Violet Blackton, 14-year-old daughter of J. Stuart Blackton, to Gerard de Merveux, who is suing the film producer for $25,000 for an "unwarranted" horsewhipping, was one of the chief exhibits at the resumption of the trial here today.

The note, couched in quaint language, was identified by Mrs. Gardner James, another daughter, as having been written by her younger sister. Mrs. James had previously testified that De Merveux had threatened to kill her. The alleged threat was made before the invitation was sent to the French fencing teacher.

"Was not De Merveux around the house for several weeks after you say he threatened your life?" the plaintiff's attorney asked.

"Yes," Mrs. James replied. " weren't you alarmed by the threat?"

"Not particularly."

"Did you work late at the studio and didn't De Merveux come to take you home every night?"

"I don't remember," the witness answered.

There was a laugh from the spectators and Judge Gates rapped for order.

It was expected that all testimony will be in by tomorrow.

Siskiyou Slayer Taken To Oregon

(By Universal Service)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 25.—Hugh De Autremont is en route to Oregon tonight in custody of Sheriff Ralph Jennings of Medford.

The young soldier who was arrested a month ago in Manila under the name of Price, met the severest call upon his courage when Sheriff Jennings read a warrant formally charging him with first degree murder in connection with the holdup of a Southern Pacific mail train in the Siskiyou tunnel October 11, 1923, in which four men were killed.

De Autremont smiled when the sheriff completed reading the warrant.

Boys, Listen to Gene Tunney

"I wanted to win."

"For seven years I trained to win."

"Like a cat watches a mouse, I watched the champion in the movies and in his exhibitions. From a balcony seat I watched that huge frame swing its sleep dealing blows. In still life I studied him. I knew the exact weight and every measurement of the man who was the heavyweight champion of the world."

"I knew I had to add 20 to 25 pounds to my 160 to back up the blows I intended to deliver. And to come somewhere near the 190 pounds of my adversary I must eat certain foods, whether I had a hankering for them or not. I must exercise certain muscles to bring my measurements up to a certain point."

"I liked the theatre and the lights of the big city. But I knew that fresh air, simple living, constant exercise and regular hours were the things for me. A quarter of an inch here. A quarter of an inch there. A quarter of a pound regularly gained proved that my method of eating and exercising were sound."

"Win I must. Win I would."

"I studied his face, the history of his past fights. I tried to discover his strong points. I searched for his weak ones."

"For seven years I trained to win," Gene Tunney's words.

Now for a little algebra, my boys. If Gene Tunney put in seven years to win a battle of an hour, how long should you work to win the battle of life?

If Gene Tunney watched every move, thought and characteristic of Jack Dempsey for seven years, how much should you know about the way the world of affairs move and the characteristics of business, industry and the professions?

If Gene Tunney ate what he should, behaved himself as he should, sought those friends who would help by honest criticism instead of surrounding himself with flatterers, if he added weight systematically to re-enforce his strength and inches here and there to be physically fit, and if he succeeded in strengthening his moral fibre and his belief in himself—now if Gene did these things, AND HE DID, what ought you to do to get ready to fight foes which have a more powerful right and a more cunning left than Jack Dempsey ever had.

Don't Bluff Me Out

"Oh, yes, I know he's just preaching," I hear some one say.

Out out that sort of talk. I've heard it before from boys who will hang on every word that a prize fighter says or thinks, or is reported to say or think, but who refuses to get any lesson for themselves out of it beyond reading about the gate receipts, diamond studded belts, and the offer to appear in vaudeville at $1,000 per throw.

Tomorrow—The Girls

OUR CONVERSATION CORNER

The Show-Off

Will you help us with our Parent-Teacher program?

CHAIRMAN.

Answer—It strikes me that many programs are altogether too high-browish and at many meetings too much time is spent in parliamentary procedure. An association is neither a training field for Congressional candidates nor a debating society for mental show-offs. It is a place for finding the answers to the simple everyday problems which come up in the lives of children.

Do not get fussed up if you are called upon to read a paper. Do not go to the library and copy out a lot of high faluting statements. Do not use big words for everyday sort of ideas. You have ideas, give them out. They may be as good as those in books.

Here are some topics for practical discussion:

How far shall we permit our girls to "doll up"?

Should children below the age of 19 do home work?

Are we dodging the sex hygiene question?

Should the parents of a town organize to keep their daughters in for five nights a week, thereby forcing the boys to stay home because there is nothing else to do?

As space in this column is limited, I have a lot of other suggestions which I will exchange with any members of a P. T. A. for a 2-cent stamped addressed return envelope.

End In "Sight" For Bootleggers Says W. C. T. U.

(By Universal Service)

CHICAGO, March 25.—The end is in sight for the bootlegger, according to a prediction today by Mrs. Stella C. Stimson, director of Christian citizenship of the W. C. T. U.

"The big bootlegger who reaped a harvest from illicit liquor has gone in for gambling," she stated. "The Jersey rum runner is planting onions. A few of Chicago's gang leaders are about to try their hands at cabarets."

"With federal courts uncompromising in dealing with cabarets, these ventures will either be liquorless or padlocked, furthermore, the government has stamped out much of the liquor traffic."

The Monroe lands slipped by—were gone. Fred did not look back. He was afraid to.

ON TO MT. WHITNEY!

Buddy Monroe spent a restless night. In the excitement of the day's events, what with showing his new brother the grounds and the ranch in the morning, and disposed equipment, and pets, and worked range animals, and then with the dramatic incident of the defeat of the Burlingame clan, Buddy had almost forgotten that a great event faced him on the morrow.

For today, the morning of a Scout rider had dashed off in a cloud of dust to the next ranch, leaving with his brother-Scout the message: "All Boy Scouts, Troop No. 2, Sierra Mountains, ordered for general muster with mountaineering equipment into the town of Sierra, for an ascent of Mt. Whitney!"

Wring Out The Hanky; Ring Is Gone

(By Universal Service)

CHICAGO, March 25.—When you have a valuable ring, don't let a man get close to it. Such is the advice of Miss Caroline Ryan, who filed suit against a jewelry company here today because they had given her ring to her friend.

Accompanied by Jack Wood, Miss Ryan had taken the ring to the jeweler for appraisal, saying she would return it in the evening for it. When she returned, she found that Mr. Wood had been there previously and had taken the ring. She has not seen her friend nor the ring since then.

'SPRIG' WINS BLUE RIBBON STEEPLECHASE

By ROBERT J. PREW (By Universal Service) LIVERPOOL, Eng., March 25.—The Grand National, the world's blue ribbon steeplechase event, was won today by Sprig, owned by Mrs. M. Partridge, 73-year-old English racing enthusiast.

Sprig started a favorite and paid eight to one. He beat Boy-III, by a length and a half. An American owner, Laddie Sanford, took third place with Bright's Boy, which finished a length behind Boy-III.

The starting prices for the second and third horses were 100 to 1 and 100 to 2 respectively.

Mrs. Partridge was bequeathed Sprig by her son, who was killed in the war. King George sent her after the race and warmly congratulated her on her victory.

A few hours before the race a heavy rain fell but the horses got away during a bright spell. There were 37 starters, a record for the race, but only seven completed the course, all of the others balking or falling during the gruelling spin.

Although not taking top honors American entrants had a creditable day for seven starters three completed the course. In addition to Bright's Boy, American owned Drimmond, ridden by J. B. Baldwin, finished fourth, and M. D. Blair's Master of Arts fifth. Gordon Selfridge's much fancied Misconduct was barred out by a loose horse on the second round of the track and balked at an obstacle.

Sanford's second string, Marsin, fell, as also did W. H. Draper's Knight of the Wilderness. Harold Fowler, riding Pop Ahead, pulled up when he saw his mount had no chance.

An unprecedented number of Americans went to Liverpool for the race. Charles Schwartz, whose one-time favorite, Jack Horner, last year's winner, was unable to run, rented two houses for his friends, and Gordon Selfridge took a party in his special sleeper train. Several liners tied up at the Liverpool docks and provided accommodations for thousands who were unable to find rooms in the hotels or private houses.

Benjamin was arrested recently on a complaint sworn out by Miss Nixon's brother-in-law which alleged that the boxer attempted to invade his ex-wife's home.

Failing to gain entrance, he fired five shots and then broke a window with the butt of the revolver, it was charged. None of the shots took effect.

When the case was called on March 17, Miss Nixon, who was to have been the chief prosecution witness, failed to appear. It was reported at the hall of Justice today that, because of her unwillingness to testify against Benjamin, the case will be dismissed when it comes up again.

Miss Nixon was a wampus baby star of 1924 and married Benjamin in that year. They separated in 1926 and Miss Nixon obtained a divorce decree.

Miss Nobody

Anna Q. Nilsson who has greatest role of her career in "MISS NOBODY," now being screened at the California theatre.

A fascinating love story spun against the background of the far west, with some of the most spectacular scenic effects ever recorded by a camera. That's "Man of the Forest," a Paramount picture from Zane Grey's novel with Jack Holt, Georgia Hale and El Brendel in leading roles, which opened at the Richmond theatre yesterday.

This western narrative of adventurous romance has been treated by the director, John Waters, who also made "Born to the West" and "Folom River," in a refreshing fashion. Of absorbing interest, the production is not dependent on froak horseman or marksmanship or an exaggerated theme of conflict, but instead, presents a plausible romance in which the wilderness background is only incidental.

Holt offers another splendid characterization in the title role. Georgia Hale, making her first appearance in an outdoor picture, enacts the heroine. A fine vein of comedy, developed by El Brendel, who scored heavily in "The Campus Flirt," is carried with left directorial touch.

Warner Oland makes a thoroughly detestable villain as the man who schemes to defraud Miss Hale of her ranch and claim her love under false pretenses. Incidentally, the theme of his conflict with Holt is developed in splendid fashion.

Made in the high mountains of California, the scenery is inspiringly beautiful and would make the picture above the average even if the praiseworthy efforts of an excellent cast were absent. Tom Kennedy, Ivan Christie, Bruce Gordon and Vester Pegg are numbered among the hard riders.

Other film features include "Crazy Like a Fox," a comedy scream, and "Felix in Reversed English," a Felix the Cat cartoon comedy.

MISS NOBODY IS AT CALIFORNIA

An adventure in contentment is "Miss Nobody," which had a premiere last night at the California theatre.

It brings to those who see it not only a sense of the lure of vagabondage but imparts as well some understanding of the cloistered peace of soul that comes to that clan in their state of economic apathy.

Duke, Bertie, Happy, Harmony and, not the least by any means, the Kid, populate in a major sense this really unique photodrama of the season. The Kid is none other than Anna Q. Nilsson, reverting for the first time since her remarkable performance in "Ponjola" to male attire. She, in common with the others named, portrays a happy-go-lucky knight of the road.

Disdaining the services of a "double" in this play of hobo life, Miss Nilsson actually "rides the rods" on a speeding freight train, paces the brakeman's runaway on top of careening cars, perches on the bounding "bumpers" and undergoes the rigors of the brakeman's pet device for dislodging tramps clinging to the chassis of cars—the method known as "hanging a coupling pin."

Never in the knowledge of the critic has a star taken such personal risks as are faced by the courageous Miss Nilsson in this production for the sake of realism, nor is her daring in vain, for these exploits, as photographed either from the top of the moving train or from platforms projecting from the side of the cars, form some of the most graphic film ever exhibited.

"Miss Nobody," aside of its tensely dramatic situations, abounds in rich humor and is most capably interpreted by a cast at the head of which is a coterie of featured supporting artists comprised of Walter Pidgeon, screen "find" of the year; Louise Fazenda, Mitchell Lewis, Clyde Cook and Arthur Stone.

The play is based on the Tiffany Wells novel, "Shebo," was directed by Lambert Hillyer and produced under the editorial guidance of W. D. Gunning, noted screen critic. It is a First National release.

Other features include "The Jellyfish," a Mermaid comedy; a Ko Ko cartoon; "International News" and Larry Canelo at the organ.

 4837 Shattuck Ave., Oakland, Cal. July 30, 1926.
 Ten years ago I had Malaria which left me with a twinging pain in my left kidney and running around my left side. Before I came to Oakland I had treated with numerous physicians and had been in several hospitals in New York. As I got no relief whatever, I was advised to make a change of climate. Therefore I came West, but here I suffered as badly as ever.
 Finally a friend urged me to try the FONG WAN HERBS. One week of this treatment gave me wonderful, permanent relief. During the year that has elapsed since I have had absolutely no indications of my former complaints.
 How wonderful it seems that the FONG WAN HERBS could thus help me after the doctors and hospitals had failed. I am a barber by trade. It has not been for the FONG WAN HERBS TREATMENTS how could I have earned a living while suffering with those terrible pains.
 I am very thankful to the FONG WAN HERBS SPECIALIST for what he has done for me and am giving him this testimonial as a token of my gratitude.

Faith Of Job Is Cited In Dr. Bulgin's Revival Sermon

Chips That Fall From Bulgin Axe

The eye of intellect can never see God. It takes the eye of faith.

There can be no sin where there is a justifiable excuse.

Sin is Anarchy against God. Unbelief is the biggest sin of man.

God positively cannot forgive an unbeliever.

God put Adam out of the Garden of Eden for the same thing that will put you in Hell. God does not put you in Hell. You put yourself there.

I thank God that although I am not perfect, I have a perfect Christ.

There is a world of difference between being transformed and conformed.

I am here to point out to you from Zion's hill the way to heaven.

Your conscience is not a safe guide, but the Holy Spirit and God's bible are.

When your church letter lies very long in your trunk, your experience goes along with it.

"Unbelief is the greatest sin of man," said Dr. Bulgin last night, addressing his audience at the Big Tent in the Richmond Union Revival services, citing the case of Job, who kept his faith in the face of heathen philosophy by the three comforters and the paganism of his wife.

"I want to lay down five propositions:

"Every excuse that a man makes for living in sin charges blame on the Almighty God.

"There can not be a sin where there is a justifiable excuse. A man cannot be blamed for doing a thing for the doing of which he has a justifiable excuse.

"If God condemns a man who has a justifiable excuse, God is wrong and cannot be a just deity. "God does blame and will punish any and all sin.

"Every argument you make for living in sin or away from God flies in the teeth of the Almighty and seeks to condemn Him that you may be right.

"When you come to people and ask them to surrender their wills to the most high God and lead Christian lives, they begin to set up arguments. To them they may look reasonable; my purpose is to show the unreasonableness of some of the excuses. No man has any excuse of reason which he can give God on Judgement day for not obeying the voice of Almighty God. Unbelief is the sin that kills the remedy God has provided for all the rest of sin. If you steal a horse, tell a lie or get drunk, and ask forgiveness of God you will receive it. But if you do anything wrong and refuse to come to God for forgiveness, you and He can not do business.

have been burned—the Oligarchal Seminary, Hillcrest School, residences of Hucheson, H. J. Mills. The majority of the American consulate there were looted or wantonly destroyed by the Nationalist soldiers in uniform.

"Many Americans, including women, were treated with the greatest brutality by soldiers in the Nationalist uniform who tore off the clothing and otherwise maltreated them. Practically all of the outrages were committed by soldiers in the Nationalist uniform and in one instance was reported the pistol of a French priest by a Cantonese officer."

Considerable doubt still exists as to what has happened in Nanking. The number of casualties and the fate of foreigners remained uncertain.

In a dispatch filed at 9:32 p. m., Chinese time, March 25, which was 8:32 this morning here, Rear Admiral Hough reported that foreigners are beginning to clear out of the city. He said, however, that 120 American refugees are still in Nanking University, but will probably be evacuated tonight. This was understood to mean that he had made an agreement with the Cantonese leaders.

This message follows:

British Consul Safe

"As a result of the strong stand taken today by the forces here the foreigners are beginning to come out of the city. The Japanese are completing their evacuation tonight."

"The British consul-general and the missing marines are now coming off to the H. M. S. Emerald. It is now considered a fair possibility that the 120 Americans who took refuge in Nanking University will be evacuating to the ship tonight."

"In view of this we are postponing further consideration of action tomorrow."

The missing marines referred to were a detachment from the British cruiser Emerald who were cut off in attempting to rescue foreigners.

About 100 Dead

"There was as yet no accurate checkup of the number of killed. Admiral Hough reported only one known foreigner killed. He is Dr. Williams, of Nanking University. A British sailor attached to the Emerald was killed by a sniper. Estimates, however, of the number of foreigners killed ran as high as 100.

With the exception of an exchange between the destroyer Preston and a Chinese fort commanded by Cantonese troops, no further firing was reported today. The Preston was conveying the Kwong down the river from Nanking. The ship had refugees aboard. The Preston was fired upon by the forts from Nanking.

Silenced Fortress

She opened fire in return with four-inch guns and silenced the fort. She also showered the vicinity with machine gun and one-pounder fire. The casualties on the Chinese side are believed to have been heavy. None was hurt aboard the Preston. She accompanied the river steamer and the refugees to a point where they could proceed safely to Shanghai and returned to her station at Nanking. Admiral Hough is taking no chances, he reported to the navy department, and will subject the city to a merciless bombardment unless his demands are met. He notified the department that he had been advised that Chiang Kai Shek, Cantonese leader, would arrive at Nanking tomorrow morning and take charge of the situation to protect American lives and property.

He met this promise, he said, by immediately advising the Cantonese leader in Nanking that a general division command must come on board his ship before noon today, and arrange for the proper treatment of wounded foreigners ashore.

"If this demand is not met," he informed the Chinese, "Chiang's request that we withhold drastic action cannot be guaranteed and we shall take such action as may be deemed necessary. It may be deemed necessary to fire on salient military points in order to obtain the release of Americans remaining alive on shore."

Fear Other Massacres

It was this firm demand, officials here believe, that exacted a promise from the Cantonese to permit the evacuation of Americans.

The entire Yangtze valley is apparently aflame and Admiral Williams fears a repetition of the Nanking massacre at Hankow and Chinkiang, he reported.

Thomas Nee On Way To Recovery

Although seriously injured in an automobile accident at Nineteenth street and Barrett avenue, in which two other men received minor injuries, Thomas F. Nee, Standard Oil company employee, is reported to be well on the road to recovery, according to reports from the Letterman General hospital in San Francisco, where he is confined.

from Hankow in anticipation of anti-foreign rioting. A party of 250 missionaries have sailed down the river for Shanghai and a ship is waiting at the wharf to bring out the remaining Americans should it prove necessary. There is a heavy movement of Cantonese troops across the river from Hankow.

Tense at Chinkiang

At Chinkiang the situation was equally tense. All Americans have taken refuge in the Standard Oil company plant, which has been fortified, while the British have taken refuge in the Asiatic Petroleum company plant. Rioting has already started and there is general firing and looting in the concessions. The river steamer Wenchow was standing by to bring out the refugees.

Dispatches containing this information did not mention the nature of the disorders in Swatow, Amoy and Foochow.

Thayer Rites Will Be Today

Funeral services for Thomas Thayer, well known Standard Oil employee, who passed away in San Diego Thursday, will be held from the Wilson and Kratzer chapel this afternoon at 2 o'clock, under the auspices of Alpha lodge of Masons. Interment will follow in Sunset View cemetery.
